NARRATIVE:

Tony Brown is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include assaults, battery, cruelty to child, assault with a deadly weapon, terrorist threats, vandalism, domestic violence with injury, burglary, grand theft, petty theft, possession of controlled substances for sale, attempted possession of controlled substances, resisting an officer, felony failing to appear and destroying evidence. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for possession of controlled substances for sale. Brown was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 14, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Brown qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for assault is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
